

Alexandru-Murad MIRONOV

Doctor în istorie, cercetător științific II la Institutul Național pentru Studiul Totalitarismului, conferențiar universitar la Facultatea de Istorie a Universității din București.

Domenii de interes: istorie contemporană, istorie socială și politică.

Publicații: Decision-Making in Foreign Policy During Interwar Romania. Historical Outline of an Institutional Architecture, în Romanian Diplomatic Corps (1918-1947): Recruitments, Professional Ways, Intellectual Profiles, Adrian Vițalaru, Ionuț Nistor, Adrian-Bogdan Ceobanu (editors), Hartung-Gorre Verlag, Konstanz, 2020, p. 31-44; Elaborating on a Limit of the Socialist Model. Pensions, Retirees, Retirement Systems in Post-war Romania, în „Revue des études sud-est européennes”, tome LVIII, numéros 1-4, Janvier-Décembre 2020, p. 291-297.

Alexandru-Murad MIRONOV

PhD in History, Senior Researcher at the National Institute for the Study of Totalitarianism and associate professor at the Faculty of History, University of Bucharest.

Fields of research: world history in the XXth century, social and political history.

Recent publications: “Decision-Making in Foreign Policy During Interwar Romania. Historical Outline of an Institutional Architecture,” in Adrian Vițalaru, Ionuț Nistor, Adrian-Bogdan Ceobanu (editors), Romanian Diplomatic Corps (1918-1947): Recruitments, Professional Ways, Intellectual Profiles, 2020: Konstanz, Hartung-Gorre Verlag, 2020, p. 31-44; “Elaborating on a Limit of the Socialist Model. Pensions, Retirees, Retirement Systems in Post-war Romania,” Revue des études sud-est européenne, Volume LVIII (1-4/Jan.-Dec. 2020), p. 291-297.

Email: al.mironov@totalitarism.ro.